

IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Samsung S&P GSCI Crude Oil ER Futures ETF (the “Sub-fund”) is a sub-fund of the Samsung ETFs Trust (“Trust”), which is an umbrella unit trust established under Hong Kong law. The investment objective of Sub-fund is to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of S&P GSCI Crude Oil Multiple Contract 55/30/15 1M/2M/3M (USD) ER Index (“ER” (i.e. excess return) does not mean any additional return on the ETF’s performance) (the “Index”). There can be no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.
- The Index tracks the performance of multiple contract months for West Texas Intermediate crude oil (also known as Texas light sweet crude oil) futures contract traded on NYMEX (the “WTI Futures Contracts”).
- The Sub-fund is a complex product. Investors should exercise caution in relation to the Sub-fund which is only suitable for investors who are in a financial position to assume the risks involved in futures investments.
- Investment involves risks which include without limitation to oil market risks, futures contracts risks, risk of material non-correlation with spot/current market price of WTI crude oil, risks related to unscheduled roll of the index and new index risk. Movement in the prices of futures may be highly volatile. It is possible that the entire value of your investment could be lost. Please note that the above listed investment risks are not exhaustive. Investors should refer to the prospectus of Samsung S&P GSCI Crude Oil ER Futures ETF for details, including the product features and risk factors. Investors should not base on this material alone to make investment decisions.
